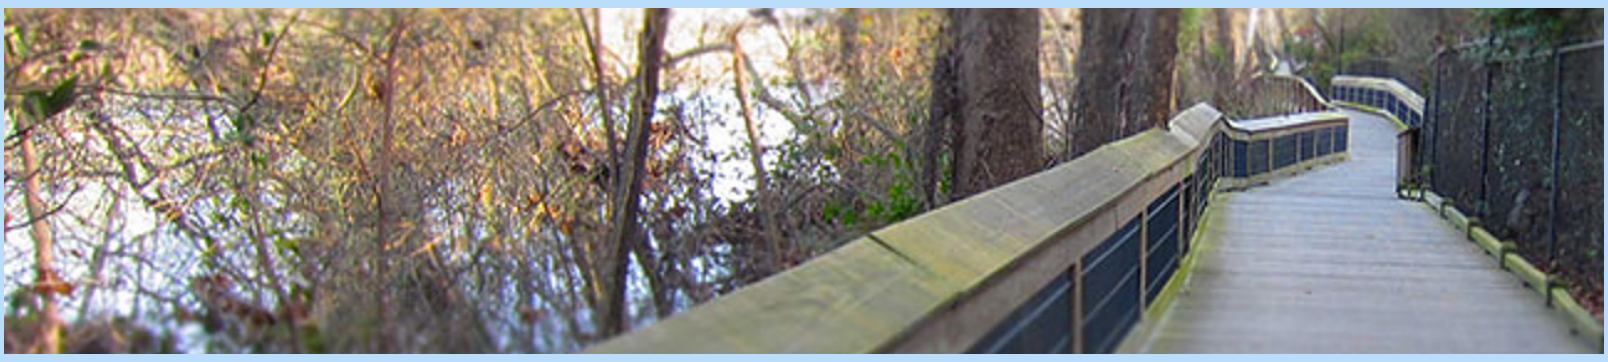
City of Cayce

WWW.CITYOFCAYCE-SC.GOV



Recreation

The Cayce Riverwalk is nearly 8 miles of light, paved pathways overlooking the scenic river. Stop and have a picnic, kayak, fish or take a swim! You have everything an afternoon walk needs, with convenient parking, security detail, and restroom facilities. Cayce also boasts the international award-winning Cayce Tennis & Fitness Center!

Low Cost Living

Cayce's cost of living is 14.70% lower than the U.S. average, with job growth increasing by 0.88%, and the median home costing $88,200.

Culture

Cayce holds an annual festival of arts every spring for local crafters and artists to come together and show off their talents. There is also the Congaree Bluegrass Festival, held on the first Saturday in October each year. Tartan Day South takes place every April, celebrates the culture of the Celtic Nations at the Historic Columbia Speedway.

Location

The City of Cayce is located less than five minutes from downtown Columbia, major interstates such as I-77 and I-26, the South Carolina Statehouse, the University of South Carolina and the and the Columbia Metropolitan Airport.

Green Spaces

Our more than 46 miles of trail ways have more than 600,000 visitors per year! We have many city parks including Guignard Park, Granby Gardens, Glenwood Park, Burnette Park, and Churchill Garden that offer great scenery, outdoor recreation, grills, picnic areas, and playgrounds for kids to enjoy.

History

The Cayce Historical Museum takes you back in time to the first European settlements and is modeled after a trading post from the 1700's. Exhibits emphasize periods of colonial trade, Naive American Artifacts, agricultural development, and transportation from the 18th century through the present time.

FUN FACTS ABOUT CAYCE

Guignard Brick Works

These historic brick kilns in Cayce are on the national register of historical places.

Historic Columbia Speedway

A NASCAR hot spot through the 1970's and home to today's Tartan Day South, this historic spot is where Richard Petty won his first race!

#1 in SC for Millennial Job Seekers
#2 in SC for Women in the Workforce
#6 Happiest Cities in South Carolina
#9 in SC for Tax Friendly Places for Retirees

Something for Everyone!

City of Cayce
1800 12th Street
Cayce, South Carolina 29033
803-796-9020
www.cityofcayce-sc.gov
T: @CityofCayce