

The Cayce Riverwalk

Cayce Riverwalk Facts and Figures

- The Cayce Riverwalk is an 8-mile long path located along the west bank of the Congaree River.
- The Congaree River is 47 miles long and converges from the Saluda and Broad Rivers.
- The Cayce Riverwalk is open daily from dawn until dusk with lighting for evening visibility.
- Approximately 600,000 people visit the Riverwalk each year.
- Emergency call boxes with direct access to Cayce Public Safety 24 hours a day are located along the path; Park Officers and Park Rangers patrol during the day and are available to assist visitors.
- The pathway is 8-feet wide, ADA accessible, and consists of paved pathways and wooden boardwalks.
- Walkers, runners and cyclists are welcome to enjoy the Riverwalk overlooking the Congaree River.
- Scenic overlooks, benches, tables and covered picnic areas are located along the pathway; restroom facilities are located at the Naples Ave. entrance and the H. Kelley Jones Park entrance.
- Free public parking is available at the following Riverwalk entrances: Naples Ave.; H. Kelley Jones Park (off Riverland Dr.); Phase 3 trailhead (off Old State Rd.), Phase 4 trailhead (at Thomas Newman Boat Landing) and Timmerman Trail.
- Cayce's Riverwalk is part of the Three Rivers Greenway.

Cayce Riverwalk Phases

Phase 1: Wrought iron gate at the Cayce/West Columbia city line, just upstream of the Blossom Street Bridge, downriver to Cayce Cove Apartments/train trestles (1 mile; parking available at Naples Ave.)

Phase 2: Cayce Cove Apartments/train trestles, downriver to H. Kelley Jones Park (in the Riverland Park neighborhood) (1 mile; parking available at H. Kelley Jones Park)

Phase 3: H. Kelley Jones Park to the Thomas Newman Boat Landing (1.5 miles; parking available at H. Kelley Jones Park (off Riverland Dr.) and Phase 3 trailhead (off Old State Rd.))

Phase 4: Thomas Newman Boat Landing to the Timmerman Trail loop (.75 mile; parking available at Thomas Newman Boat Landing)

Timmerman Trail: From a junction at Phase 4, forms a loop; additional entrances near Cayce Tennis and Fitness Center (off Fort Congaree Trail) and SCANA Parkway (3.5 mile loop; parking at all entrances)